

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives enjoy a long, proud tradition of meeting their responsibilities to the citizens of this state while upholding the virtues represented by the "Glory of Missouri": Knowledge, Liberty, Equality, Law, Justice, Fraternity, Education, Progress, Honor, Truth, Virtue, Temperance, Enterprise, and Charity; and

Whereas, the "Glory of Missouri" virtues were engraved in the House Chamber of the State Capitol in the early 1920s under the direction of the Decorating Commission with the inscription: "All the foregoing human qualities bind into one theme, the Glory of Missouri because no people attain these virtues unless they are great."; and

Whereas, the "Glory of Missouri" Award was created to encourage the values held by the early leaders of Missouri and to recognize those standards as exemplified in our schools and communities by this state's young people who are the future of Missouri; and

Whereas, Adam L. Herberg, a student at Rockwood South Middle School in Fenton, has been selected to receive a "Glory of Missouri" Award for his accomplishments in the area of TEMPERANCE as defined by Webster's dictionary in 1926: "Moderation of passion, self-control; calmness. Habitual moderation in the indulgence of the appetites and passions; moderation."; and

Whereas, the son of Dave and Debbie Herberg, Adam is an outstanding young man who strives for excellence in every goal he pursues, while constantly maintaining his composure no matter how difficult or how dramatic the situation may be; and

Whereas, Adam remains cool and calm regardless of his activity, including his classroom work, his participation in National Junior Honor Society, and his contribution of talent to the band:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-first General Assembly, join unanimously in commending Adam L. Herberg for his noteworthy achievements in the pursuit of TEMPERANCE and in congratulating him at this proud moment of well-deserved distinction; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Adam L. Herberg, as a mark of our esteem for him.
